What is Going On Tonight.
Willimantic lodge, No. 1311, B. P. O. Elks, meets at 8:30 Main street.
Eastern Star lodge, No. 44, A. F. & A. M., meets at Masonic hall, Main street.

The weekly meeting of Willimantic Rotary club was held Tuesday noon, 90 per cent. of the members being present. The meeting was opened by President Frank H. Foss and began with the singing of America. John Ahern playing the piano accompanied.

President Foss passed around samples of Rotary bulletins published by other Rotary clubs, but no action was taken concerning the local club's activities in this line. The matter of donating to the Sergeant Alvin York fund was left to the individual members of the club, donations to be sent to the South Bend, Indiana Rotary club.

Secretary Charles W. Hill read the reports of the previous meetings, stating that the club attendance for September was 50.6 and that during the month the attendance on two occasions was 100 per cent. He announced that last State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Robbins H. Stoeckel is to speak to the local Rotarians Tuesday, November 2nd, his subject to be of interest to Willimantic and the state. Announcement was made that Captain Harry E. Howard of New London would be asked to entertain at a meeting of the club during the current month. More copies of the Rotary seminar are to arrive from the Quincy Rotary club.

Fred D. Jordan, chairman of the Boy's Work committee, reported that the committee had taken up the work of finding a home for the Italian boy who is being cared for by a Windham Road family. The committee had been in touch with Mrs. Ora M. Clark of the Willimantic Welfare Bureau but as yet no home had been found for the boy. The names of prominent Italian families were mentioned and it is possible that the boy will be placed before long. The club voted to reimburse the family now caring for the boy, the sum to be paid not to exceed five dollars per week for the weeks they have cared for the boy, who is now attending Windham High school. The members of the club plan to be on the lookout for part-time employment for the lad as he is willing to earn his way through the school if the chance is provided.

John C. Tracy, chairman of the committee on street signs, reported that he had secured a man to furnish the signs in number, which are to be placed at Lincoln square, and Thresh Mills square designating the directions to cities and towns outside of Willimantic. The signs will bear the name of the Willimantic Rotary club. James B. Fullerton reported that the committee on street signs, reported that he had secured a man to furnish the signs in number, which are to be placed at Lincoln square, and Thresh Mills square designating the directions to cities and towns outside of Willimantic. The signs will bear the name of the Willimantic Rotary club.

spent at the Styles cottage at Crescent Beach with a party of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Homer M. Harrington and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harrington, of this city. Several other visitors spent the week end with them, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hardman and Miss Elizabeth Harman, of Windham road.

The first meeting of the Dramatic club of the Senior class of Willimantic State Normal School was held recently and the following officers were elected: President, Miss Edna Laramie, Willimantic; vice president, Miss Alice Serafini, Stafford Springs; secretary, Lillian Brewster, Norwich; and treasurer, Miss Dora W. Tate, Taftville.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy R. Haven was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her home in North Coventry, Rev. C. E. Ricketts, officiating. Burial was in the Center cemetery, North Coventry, in charge of Jay M. Shepard.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Willimantic Chamber of Commerce took place Tuesday night at Chamber of Commerce hall, Main street. President James B. Fullerton presided and reports of officers and committee chairmen were heard.

Secretary M. E. Sullivan in his report stated that the club now had a membership of 488, there having been 14 resignations and 8 deaths during the past year. Total money collected from members $2800. Number of articles of mail received 4932; letters to be answered 947.

Corresponding Secretary W. C. Norris' report read by Secretary Sullivan told of the folder prepared by that committee to be sent out by members to various places. The folder contains interesting information about Willimantic and why it would be a choice place for any industry to locate.

A. C. Scribner, treasurer, gave his report as follows: Balance on hand October 1, 1920, $570.41. Total receipts for the year just ended $2914.57. Expenditures $3430.10. Balance on hand October 1, 1921, $478.47.

James P. Bath, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that the chamber held eight suppers last season, the average attendance better 175. There was music and singing at all meetings and five well known speakers and entertainers were secured by the committee. There was also one Farmers Night and one Ladies' Night. The success of the program he said was the result of the co-operation of President J. B. Fullerton, Corresponding Secretary W. C. Norris and Committee Chairman James W. Twomey and C. J. Albree.

President James B. Fullerton in his report, stated that the chamber had done much to foster good fellowship among the business men of the city and that all had benefited by learning to know his business associates better. At one time the membership of the chamber totaled over 500 but losses were caused by the business depression. The chamber during the last two years he had been president had accomplished many things for the good of Willimantic, such things as the building of new roads by the state, better trolley service, better train service, things of this nature and the securing of new industries. Criticism was unjust when it said that the chamber had accomplished little in this last named subject. They were instructed in stating the following committee to locate here: The Willimantic Knitting Company, The Davis Metal Stamping Company, The Boyer Company, The S. C. Fox Shon, and the Roscoe Velvet Company. The salaries derived from these companies yearly totals well over $1,500,000. He also offered the following suggestions. That the city keep its front yards in order, that if Railroad station were to be used as a public service station it should be well cleaned, that the city should immediately reduce its indebtedness so that taxes in the future could be used for beneficial purposes and not to its interest on borrowed money, that the chamber of commerce organize a civic committee to get out the vote on all occasions, that the citizens of Willimantic get better acquainted with the neighbors.

HEALTH IS A WOMAN'S GREATEST ASSET.

Contrast the cheerful, happy woman, who head erect, the glow of health on her cheeks, the elastic step and bubbling enthusiasm as she goes about her daily tasks with the woman who suffers from backache, nervousness and despondency. Such conditions are undoubtedly caused by women's ailments which will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for many many years has been restoring weak, ailing women to health and strength. Every woman who suffers in this way owes it to herself to at least give it a trial.

Foley's Honey and Tar COMPOUND

IS PLEASANT TO TAKE, and soothes the raw, inflamed surfaces; stops the rasping, strangling feeling in the throat. It is made of the purest, freshest and finest ingredients to be had, contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and costs twice as much to make as any imitation of it.

Every User a Friend
"My little boy had a severe attack of croup and I honestly believe he would have died if it had not been for Foley's Honey and Tar. Two doses relieved him and he went to sleep and was troubled no more."—Mrs. W. H. Thorpe, 3523 W. 10th St., Little Rock, Ark.

"I am in my eighty-seventh year and I was troubled with a tickling in my throat. I saw very little of my family for several days. I had stopped that."—Geo. F. Randall, Dayton, Nev.

Foley's Honey and Tar is recommended for coughs, colds, hoarseness, tickling of the throat, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, la grippe and bronchial coughs.

For the sake of your babies see our baby today

FOR years this has been our hope—to develop a small hot-water radiator-boiler that would warm a modest home as perfectly as our larger heating plants have warmed mansions, cathedrals, and even the White House itself.

ARCOLA is the practical fulfillment of that hope. ARCOLA is the baby of the American Radiator Company.

It is unlike any heating plant you have ever seen. It is boiler, radiator and water-heater combined—as handsome as a fine phonograph and costing hardly any more.

ARCOLA creates and radiates warmth in the room where it is placed, and connected with American Radiators, it will heat every other room and provide hot water for bathing and washing as well.

Comfort, security and health are ARCOLA's gift; and it pays for itself in an amazingly short time. The price is so low it will surprise you—50% higher last year than now.

For the sake of your whole family—your babies especially—go to your Heating Contractor and see our baby today.

The red and yellow card at the right is the sign of a Heating or Sanitary Engineer (formerly called Steamfitter or Plumber) who can show you ARCOLA. Look for it in his window.

It will pay you to consult him twice a year as you do your Doctor or Dentist. To have him examine and report on your heating and plumbing costs little. It may save you a very great deal.

in nearby towns, and that the chamber cooperate more with the ladies of the city in civic problems. In closing he thanked the officers, committee members and the members of the chamber for the cooperation, while he was in office. All reports were ordered placed on file.

John E. Brick made the motion that the president appoint a committee of seven to select officers and a board of directors for the ensuing year, and the following were appointed: John E. Brick, chairman, Fred D. Jordan, J. B. Fullerton, Andrew Roux, J. E. Sullivan and C. J. Tracy.

The report of the committee for officers and directors was approved and the following were elected to office: President, Charles W. Hill; vice president, F. P. Rafferty and Alvin J. Marlette; secretary, M. E. Sullivan; treasurer, A. C. Scribner; corresponding secretary, W. C. Norris; board of directors, James B. Fullerton, James P. Bath, Charles F. Rissdorf, Nelson A. Daniels, Valentine L. Murphy, George Hickey, Frank Larabee, Samuel Feldman, Patrick D. Donohue, Andrew Roux, Edward P. Whitmore, Frank H. Foss, William Haddad, Samuel Pocaro, and M. Kowakowski.

President Charles W. Hill then assumed office and new business was taken up. Voted, that the names of newly elected officers and committees be printed and sent to all members. James B. Fullerton reported that the chamber had reported that new chairs were needed for the assembly hall to replace the benches. The matter will be taken up. Voted that the first supper will be held for the first meeting in November. Adjournment took place at 9:30.

The Willimantic Woman's Club had their guests at the Tuesday afternoon meeting, October 4th, from women's clubs of Brooklyn, Danbury, Plainfield, South Coventry, and Storrs, numbering sixty in all. The meeting was opened by President Mrs. Robert H. Penton who turned the meeting over to Mrs. C. C. Case, vice president for Windham. The speaker of the day was Mrs. Horace Brainard of Thompsonville, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. A. L. Potter of Thompsonville, corresponding secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs was also a speaker. Music was furnished by visitors from out of town clubs, and Miss Pittine, president of the Danbury Women's Club spoke briefly. Following the meeting a luncheon was served and a social time enjoyed.

COLCHESTER

The annual town election was one of the quietest in years, only about one-half the voters on the list casting their votes. It being the Jewish New Year, very few Jewish citizens voted. The entire democratic ticket was elected by districts. There were 158 straight democratic votes and 110 straight republican. The vote for the consolidation of the town schools under town management instead of by districts was carried by a fair majority. At the annual meeting after the voting closed, it was voted to adjourn until March for the purpose of laying the new tax. Several other important matters were laid over.

The following were elected: Assessor for three years, Dwight C. Gillette; assessor for one year, Benjamin Mintz; board of relief, David Shea; town clerk, John Condon; town treasurer, Edward P. Bunyan; tax collector, Timothy F. Kelley; auditors, H. P. Buel, r. and John Condon, d.; registrars of voters, John J. Shea, d. and Edward T. Bunyan, town deposit fund, Edward T. Bunyan.
